ANNOUNCEMENT.

The M. E. Sabbath School of Auburn have been so fortunate as to secure the great

to give his noted lecture, "THE GOLDEN GATE, OR AGE AND LAND IN WHICH WE LIVE," in their church, MONDAY EVENING, APRIL 8.

Many of our people have heard Col. Bain, and of course will want to hear him again; while those who never have heard him can not let this opportunity pass by unimproved.

Col. Bain is one of America's great men, and stands in the front rank of American Oratory. Let Auburn and vicinity do him honor by greeting him with a crowded house.

A FEW BRIEF TESTIMONIALS

His lectures are humor and logic set to music.—Wilkesbarre (Pa) Leader

He is every inch a true man, and his views are tempered with kindness.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

His flights of eloquence were fascinating, the reporter forgot what he came for.—Scranton (Pa.) Republican.

He is a popular orator in its most attractive sense, and is the most widely known of any lecturer of to-day.—Russell H. Conwell, the noted divine and lecturer of Philadelphia.

I have been his pastor. He is one of the best loved and most lovable men in Kentucky.—Rev. H. A. M. Henderson, D. D.

He is a man of superior ability. You need not fear to put him on any platform in America.—Bishop Vincent to a friend in Danville, Ind.

Col. Bain carried everything by storm. The greatest success any lecturer ever made here in my time. Book us in advance for him next season.—G. A. Williams, Saxtons River, Vt.

When Col. George Bain, the "Silver Tongued" orator of Kentucky, comes to Des Moines again he will have need of engaging a more spacious auditorium than that of the Y. M. C. A. He is one of the ablest lecturers that has appeared in Des Moines.—Des Moines, Iowa, Leader.

He held his audience entranced by his use of wit combined with his play upon the pathetic chord which underlies every human heart. We hope to have him again.—C. W. McCay, of Dartmouth College, Hanover, N. H.

Mr. Bain will go away from this place fully convinced that one of the most striking "traits of character" of those who heard him is their appreciation of his efforts in making last evening's entertainment the most enjoyable one given thus far in the Y. M. C. A. course.—Robert J. Burdette, in the Burlington Hawkeye.

A large house greeted Col. Bain last Thursday evening, and listened to one of the most eloquent speeches ever given in St. Louis. Col. Bain is a master of oratory, and not only kept the audience spell-bound with his beautiful language, but frequently made them roar with laughter by his funny stories. Mr. Bain will always have a large audience in St. Louis.—St. Louis Leader.

Miss Frances E. Willard says of him:—Unequaled in humor, he is also unapproached in pathos. Logical to the core, his rhetoric so wraps its warmth about his arguments that even the young and thoughtless can but exclaim: "Behold, these dry bones live!" To a pictorial memory, keen incisive judgment and a sunlit imagination, Mr. Bain adds a pleasing presence, faultless manner, and a voice of mellow compass and subtlest sympathy.

Estella Merica will be at home and favor the audience with a Violin Solo.
